One Woman's Dedication

CHILDREN who cannot speak, the victims of aphasia, will be moving from borrowed quarters to a school of their own because of the talent and dedication of Washington's Mrs. Desmond FitzGerald. In three years—without any professional help or a single charity benefit—she has raised more than $325,000 to build a new home for the special school program of the Children's Hearing and Speech Center of Children's Hospital. A photographic report on the Center begins on page 14.
